- Comply with the law

► See pages 3 and 4 for more information on these uses and disclosures

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights.

This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.

Get a copy of your health and claims records

- You can ask to see or get a copy of your health and claims records and other health information we have about you. Ask us how to do this.
- We will provide a copy or a summary of your health and claims records, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.

Ask us to correct health and claims records

- You can ask us to correct your health and claims records if you think they are incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this.
- We may say “no” to your request, but we’ll tell you why in writing within 60 days.

Request confidential communications

- You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address.
- We will consider all reasonable requests, and must say “yes” if you tell us you would be in danger if we do not.

Ask us to limit what we use or share

- You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations.
- We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say “no” if it would affect your care.

Get a list of those with whom we've shared information

- You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we've shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why.
- We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We'll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.

Get a copy of this privacy notice

- You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.

Choose someone to act for you

- If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.
- We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.

File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated

- You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us using the information on page 1.
- You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.
- We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

Your Choices

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:

- Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in payment for your care
- Share information in a disaster relief situation

If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

In these cases we never share your information unless you give us written permission:

- Marketing purposes
- Sale of your information

Our Uses and Disclosures

How do we typically use or share your health information?

We typically use or share your health information in the following ways.

Help manage the health care treatment you receive

- We can use your health information and share it with professionals who are treating you.

Example: A doctor sends us information about your diagnosis and treatment plan so we can arrange additional services.

Run our organization

- We can use and disclose your information to run our organization and contact you when necessary.
- We are not allowed to use genetic information to decide whether we will give you coverage and the price of that coverage. This does not apply to long term care plans.

Example: We use health information about you to develop better services for you.

Pay for your health services

- We can use and disclose your health information as we pay for your health services.

Example: We share information about you with your dental plan to coordinate payment for your dental work.

Administer your plan

- We may disclose your health information to your health plan sponsor for plan administration.

Example: Your company contracts with us to provide a health plan, and we provide your company with certain statistics to explain the premiums we charge.

Special Protections for Substance Use Disorder Treatment Records (42 C.F.R. Part 2)

Substance Use Disorder Treatment Records: Certain health information the Health Plan receives or maintains about you may be subject to additional, special federal confidentiality protections under 42 C.F.R. Part 2 ("Part 2"). Part 2 applies to records of substance use disorder diagnosis, treatment, or referral for treatment that the Health Plan receives from federally assisted substance use disorder treatment programs, or testimony relaying the content of such records. This Notice refers to these records as "SUD Records."

Special Protections Applicable to SUD Records: Except in limited circumstances, SUD Records cannot be used or disclosed without prior written consent. If the Health Plan receives SUD Records through a general consent you provide to the Part 2 substance use disorder treatment program, the Health Plan or a business associate may use and disclose the SUD records for treatment, payment, and health care operations purposes as described in this Notice. If the Health Plan receives SUD Records through a specific consent that you provide to the Health Plan or another third party, the Health Plan will use and disclose your SUD Records only as specifically permitted. Once SUD Records are disclosed, the SUD Records may be subject to redisclosure in accordance with the HIPAA regulations.

Legal and Administrative Proceedings: SUD Records will not be used or disclosed in civil, criminal, administrative, or legislative proceedings against you, unless you provide specific written consent that meets the requirements of Part 2, or a court order authorizing the use or disclosure is issued after notice and an opportunity to be heard is provided to you or to the holder of the records. Any court order authorizing the use or disclosure of records subject to Part 2 must be accompanied by a subpoena or other lawful process compelling disclosure before the requested records may be used or disclosed.

No Fundraising Use of SUD Records: The Health Plan does not use SUD records for fundraising purposes.

This Notice of Privacy Practices applies to the following organizations.
